From the Master

Brothers,

"Of these, the Greatest is Charity"

Season's Greetings and "MERRY CHRISTMAS" as our year comes to a close with a very successful Christmas dinner. I would like to thank everyone who attended our Christmas dinner observance as good wine, food, and spirits took place through out the evening. As for me the Christmas season spirit really began during that wonderful Christmas observance. On a Masonic note we will be holding our annual meeting on Jan, 7th at Grand Lodge 222 Taunton Ave, East Providence, R.I. with a start time of 5:30 pm sharp and dinner to be held at 7:30 pm. As many of you know there are many changes taking place at St. Andrews Lodge in the next few months and with a preliminary vote that took place at our October meeting which showed a strong interest in moving to Grand Lodge. With this in mind both myself and incoming Worshipful Master felt this annual meeting would be a good time to see first hand what Grand Lodge offers for our new meeting place with members who may not be familiar with that building as well as take advantage of it's handicap accessibility. As I wrap up my Christmas message I would like to share these famous words "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" !!!

A very Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, and the Best of the Holiday Season to one and all - God Bless us, Everyone !!!

Fraternally,
Bill Pennoyer
