Brethren,

The October meeting was enjoyed by all as Brother Ryan McCauley entertained everyone with a presentation of his recent visits to both the George Washington Masonic Memorial in Alexandria Virginia and the Scottish Rite House of the Temple in Washington DC.

Our November meeting will be a really interesting night. Not only is it the DDGM official visit to Adelphoi Lodge but, in keeping with tradition, it will also be a joint meeting between Adelphoi #33 and St Paul's lodge #14. The program for the evening will be what we're calling The Rusty Apron event. The Rusty Apron event is described as "a friendly refresher of all we learned as we went through the first 3 degrees of Freemasonry". I sincerely hope that every Adelphoi member, and any other masonic Brother, who has not been actively participating will come to this meeting, meet our officers and renew their enthusiasm in Adelphoi Lodge and Freemasonry in general. The presentation will be performed by RWDGM Doug Grant. I'm looking forward to seeing you there.

Fraternally,
W Bill Gervais
